

Mechanic/Shop Technician

Looking for someone to help around the shop. We are a small company operating long haul trucks and trailers and need help with everything from mechanical work on the heavy equipment to handyman work around the shop/yard. Class 1 license would be required.

Along with having strong mechanical abilities and experience, communications skills, customer service and good record keeping will be essential to this position.